Why stay in-network?

We are here to help you find the best provider for your needs. Your behavioral health benefit offers treatment and support for both mental health and substance use challenges. We have the largest fully credentialed, performance-tiered behavioral health network in the nation with more than 185,000 providers. There are advantages to choosing a provider who participates in the UHC network and you can be sure you're getting the most from your benefits. However, the choice is always yours.

	UHC Network	Out-of-Network
Convenience	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Network providers understand your benefit plan. • Network providers and UHC manage the paperwork for pre-authorization and claims submission. • Access to virtual visits right from home or place of choice. • Some providers offer expedited appointments through the Express Access Network (within 5 days). 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You typically must pay at the time of service. • Providers and facilities may not be willing to request pre-authorization for services or be willing to advocate on your behalf. • You must file claims forms based on your bill and then wait for reimbursement.
Best Match	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • UHC works with you to identify a provider whose training, background and expertise suit your specific needs. • Preferred providers are available for substance use disorder, autism, eating disorders and more. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Even if friends or family recommend someone, you can't be sure that the professional has the right background to address your unique problem.
Quality	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • UHC regularly reviews the background and practice of each network provider. • Network providers participate in quality programs, including those sponsored by national organizations and accrediting bodies, to support the quality of the care they provide. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No background check requirements on out-of-network providers. • If you see an unlicensed clinician, your benefit plan may not reimburse you.
Cost	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Highest level of reimbursement under your plan. • Your out-of-pocket costs are lower. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You may be asked to personally guarantee payment for service before they will treat you. • You are reimbursed for only a portion of the bill. • Providers and facilities are not limited in what they may charge you. You may be balance billed for the remaining charges after the health insurer pays its portion.
